

mojo day spa respects your privacy!

We will not give any information about you to others without your express permission.

Our site uses secure forms in which you give us contact information (your name, business address, telephone number, and e-mail address) so you can book appointments, place orders, request information and support, and make product suggestions. If you choose to order from us using a credit card, we will collect your credit card number and expiration date. If you contact us for support, we may keep an internal record of what support was given. We use your customer information only when it will be important for us to contact you regarding functionality changes to our services or products, our website, and special offers we think you'll find valuable. If we present co-branded offers with our partners or affiliates, it will be clear at the point of collection who is collecting the information and whose privacy statement applies.

We may use third-party advertising companies to serve ads on our behalf. These companies may employ cookies and action tags (also known as single pixel gifs or web beacons) to measure advertising effectiveness. Any information that these third parties collect via cookies and action tags is completely anonymous.

We use information gathered about you from our site statistics (for example your IP address) to help diagnose problems with our server, and to administer our website. We also gather broad demographic information from this data to help our site and make your browsing and purchasing experience more enjoyable. This is not linked to any personally identifiable information, except as necessary to prevent fraud or abuse on our system.

This site also contains links to other sites. Unfortunately mojo day spa is not responsible for the privacy practices or the content of such websites.

The information you send us may be stored and used to improve this site and our products and services, or it may be reviewed and discarded. However, your information will only be shared with third parties with your explicit permission.
